SUMMARY

I am a bilingual English and Spanish customer service and operations professional in Boca Raton with more than 15 years of front-line service, team supervision, and detail work. I have managed a store's daily operations including staffing, scheduling, inventory, and cash handling. I have run front desk reception and guest services for a hotel, and managed client outreach and appointment scheduling in CRM for a real estate team. I handle money and confidential client information carefully, I stay organized under pressure, and I am good with people in both languages.
